HARDING-FORAKER RACE
CLOSE BUT MARIONITE
WINS BY SMALL MARGIN

Incomplete Returns Indicate that Governor Cox is Victor Over Cong. John J. Whitacre by a Vote of About Two and One-half to One

WILLIS' MAJORITY ESTIMATED AT 15,000 TO 20,000

Atty. Gen. Hogan's Vote for Democratic Nomination for Senator Equal to Combined Vote of John J. Lentz and John L. Zimmerman, His Two Opponents—Ralph D. Cole of Findlay, Third In Republican Senatorial Race—Nicholas Longworth Will Be Republican Congressional Candidate From the First District—General Election News.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Aug. 12.—Former Lieutenant Governor Warren G. Harding, of Marion, was nominated by Ohio Republicans at the primary yesterday as candidate for United States senator. Former Senator Joseph B. Foraker, of Cincinnati, admitted his own defeat by Harding, early today. His conclusion was based on unofficial returns, as few reports have reached the secretary of state's office from county boards of election. The Harding-Foraker race was close.

Incomplete returns showed Governor Cox's victory over Congressman John J. Whitacre of Canton for the Democratic nomination for governor is by a vote of about 2-1-2 to 1.

Congressman Frank B. Willis of Ada, still leads former State Senator David Tod of Youngstown, for the Republican nomination for governor in further returns today by an estimated majority of between 15,000 and 20,000.

Attorney General Hogan's vote, according to available returns, continued about equal to the combined vote of his opponents, John J. Lentz of Columbus, and John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, in the race for the Democratic nomination for senator.

Indications were that all congressmen seeking re-nomination were successful, except J. Henry Goeke, of Wapakoneta, who was defeated by N. W. Cunningham for the Democratic nomination in the fourth district, and Robert J. Bulkley of Cleveland, whose defeat by a small majority by Robert Crocker, also a congressman, was conceded by Bulkley's managers at noon. Both are Democrats.

Nicholas Longworth will be a Republican congressional candidate in the first district, comprising part of Cincinnati.

Ralph D. Cole of Findlay, ran third in the Republican senatorial race.

In the Republican primary, returns indicated that Albert H. Merrill, of Cincinnati, had been nominated for lieutenant governor; Charles Q.

Hildebrandt of Wilmington, for secretary of state; Charles E. Stinebaugh, of Bowling Green, for state treasurer and Edward C. Turner, of Columbus, for attorney general.

The Republicans also apparently named Edward S. Mathias, of Van Wert, and Thomas J. Jones, of Jackson, as their candidates, justice of the Supreme court.

In the Democratic ranks, J. L. Foster Wilkin of New Philadelphia, present incumbent, and Phil M. Crow of Kenton, probably have been selected for these nominations.

Chief Justice Hugh L. Nichols, of Batavia, had no opposition for re-nomination. He will be opposed in the November election by Judge Frank Taggart, of Wooster, who opposes the Republican nomination without a contest.

Progressives had no candidates for the Supreme court nominations. The entire state Progressive ticket was named without opposition. Their leaders in the approaching campaign will be James R. Garfield, of Mentor, for governor, and Arthur L. Garfield, of Elvira, for United States senator.

Arthur L. Garfield of Elvira will head the Progressive state ticket for governor and senator respectively, having been nominated without opposition. It was estimated today about 30 percent of the electors participated in the first state-wide popular primaries yesterday. Probably less than 10,000 Progressives went to the polls, since there were almost no contests, either state or county.

The Democratic vote in the state is estimated at about 150,000 and the Republican about 180,000.

Unofficial reports are to be made to the secretary of state by election boards as soon as they are completed. Many of these will be mailed late today and a compilation may not be made at the secretary of state's office for several days.

All tabulated reports available today were made by newspapers with the aid of their correspondents in each county. A few election boards had not completed their compilation today.

Complete Results of Tuesday's Primaries
In Licking County

Returns from the primary election in Licking county were received and counted at the office of the Licking County State Supervisors of Elections in the Hubbert & Schaus building, the work being completed shortly before noon Wednesday, and the semi-official figures given out.

There was no change in the personnel of the victors as forecasted in the Advocate's morning edition, but the figures were changed, in some cases being more, and in some, less than would have been indicated by the earlier returns.

The races for the offices which were contested, were free from any personal enmities or abuse during the campaign, and if sore spots exist they are not upon the surface as far as can be judged from conversations with defeated candidates. The latter, in every instance, stated that they were approached, stated that they had done their best, and would cheerfully bow to the choice of the party, and support the candidate as named.

Johnstown was represented by three winners on the Democrat ticket. Congressman W. A. Ashbrook of that village made a great race for re-nomination and was rewarded by receiving a majority in every county in the district. His vote was a source of gratification to his friends and keen pleasure to himself.

R. L. Patton, for Sheriff, and James J. Hill, for representative, had a closer contest than their fellow townsman, the former being nominated by slightly over two hundred, while Mr. Hill's plurality was about a hundred less.

On the Republican ticket the sheriff's nomination was taken by Police Captain Charles H. Swank, from Smith L. Redman, who had served two terms in the sheriff's office some years ago. Swank's canvass in the county resulted in his getting a vote that was rather unexpected.

The largest number of votes cast was for Bert O. Horton, who, had no opposition on the Democratic ticket for clerk of courts. He received 3291, while Dr. W. L. Jackson for coroner received one less, 3290.

Will H. Miles defeated Senator W. E. Miller for the Democratic nomination for treasurer, and in this contest Miles' large vote in the city was (Continued on Page 8, Col. 3.)

International Harvester
Company Must Dissolve
Says U. S. District Court

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. Paul, Aug. 12.—The International Harvester company today was declared to be a monopoly in restraint of interstate and foreign trade and was ordered dissolved by a majority decision filed here by Judges Smith and Hook in the United States District court.

Judge Walter H. Sanborn dissented. Unless the corporation submits a plan for dissolution within 90 days the court will entertain an application for a receiver.

Unless the $140,000,000 corporation submit a plan for the dissolution of the combination into at least three independent concerns within 90 days, or in case of appeal within 90 days of the issuance of an appeal mandate from the United States Supreme court, the decision announces that the court will entertain an application for the appointment of a receiver for all the properties of the corporation.

Judge Hook concurring in the decision says:

"The International Harvester Co. is not the result of the normal growth of the fair enterprise of an individual, a partnership or a corporation. On the contrary it was created by combining five great competing companies which controlled more than 80 per cent. of the trade in necessary farm implements and it still maintains a substantial dominance. That is the controlling fact, all else is detail. It may be as said, that there is a growing recognition of the need of great concentrated resources for trade and commerce, even though secured by combination of independent, competing concerns. But that is not the Sherman act. And a statute must be taken by the courts as a true estimate of the preponderance of public opinion which calls for legislative expression. It is not for them to question whether that opinion was rightly weighed or interpreted, whether it is wise or unwise or whether it has since changed.

"It is but just, however, to say and to make it plain, that in the main the business conduct of the company towards its competitors and the public has been honorable, clean and fair. Some petty dishonesties were tracked in at the start, mostly by subordinates who had been in the service of the old companies, but they were soon gotten rid of. In this connection it should also be said that specific charges of misconduct were made in the government's petition which found no warrant whatever in the proof. They were of such a character and there was so much of them, apparently, without foundation, that the case is exceptional in that particular."

HARVESTER PEOPLE TO CARRY CASE TO
SUPREME COURT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, Aug. 12.—The Harvester case will be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States as soon as possible, according to a statement made here today by Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the International Harvester Company.

Mr. McCormick said:

"The adverse decision, is a great disappointment. As I understood it is not based on actual wrongs done in the conduct of business, of the International Harvester Company but upon the elimination of competition more than 10 years ago between the companies whose properties were purchased by it.

"The opinion acquits the company and its officers and directors of the charges of unfair and oppressive policies and practices.

"It does not sustain the charge made in the petition of the government but abandoned on the argument that the company had charged excessive or unfair prices.

"The conclusion arrived at seems to be that the Harvester is a good but illegal trust. Its business has been conducted fairly and the economies secured by its organization have injured to the benefit of its customers, the farmers, but nevertheless, the majority of the judges hold its existence is illegal.

"The decision is by a divided court and the case will not be ended until the Supreme court has said the last word."

SHIPS MAY BE CHARTERED BY THE AMERICANS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Aug. 12.—Authority was today given American embassies and legations throughout Europe to charter ships in which to bring home Americans.

The diplomatic officers were told not to pay higher rate than those usually charged by the liners for a similar service.

All thought of sending vessels over from the United States to bring back the Americans has been abandoned. It is felt that the moving of the refugees may be greatly expedited by the charter of neutral vessels wherever they are available.

Little is definitely known as to the number of Americans desirous of returning home immediately. Secretary Garrison said today the diplomatic officers had been instructed to give preference to such tourists of small means who would be immediately emigrated, and to delay the return of the others. He expects no difficulty in transporting the refugees to the main sea ports.

The cable lines from Germany were still silent today but the latest dispatches by other routes indicated no obstacles were to be placed in the way of Americans desiring to leave except that all transportation facilities were being used for military purposes.

With troops mobilized, officials expect that ordinary traffic will be resumed soon and that Americans in Germany will have no difficulty in making their way to Rotterdam to embark.

As no response has been received to state department inquiries concerning Mr. and Mrs. Archer M. Huntington of New York, reported under arrest at Nuremberg, Bavaria, Charge Haimhausen of the German embassy today undertook to send a message to Berlin in their behalf.

Claims Only Small Number of German Troops Were Engaged But Refuses to Give Figures of the Actual Losses in the FightingWILL TAKE FORTS WHEN THE ARTILLERY ARRIVES

Severe Engagements Have Been Taking Place Along the Franco-German Frontier and in Alsace—French Government Denies Any Violation of German Territory Before the Declaration of War—Inhabitants Ordered From Sveaborg, Finland, By Russian Commander Who Believes Battle Or Bombardment is Imminent.

A Dutch dispatch says a terrific cannonade was heard this morning from the direction of Tongres, north of Liege. It was reported yesterday that two divisions of German cavalry with artillery had arrived there.

Belgium was today again the scene of outpost fighting between Belgians, French and Germans.

The German commander at Liege denies the loss of 20,000 in his effort to take the forts there. He says that they will be taken without the loss of a man as soon as the German heavy artillery arrives. He asserts that "the Belgian force is numerically superior to ours."

He intimates that the assaults were stopped by the emperor's orders to avoid needless sacrifice of life.

On the subject of Liege, the French foreign minister declares all the surrounding forts are intact and that only a small force of Germans entered the town itself under cover of darkness. It has been pointed out previously that the defeat of the Liege forts was the inability to see one fort from the next, although the fire of their guns crossed.

A Brussels dispatch says the bulk of the German army is leaving Liege and advancing toward the French frontier through the heart of Belgium.

The French foreign minister described the French position in Alsace as good, as the troops occupy the crests and passes of the Vosges mountains.

Military experts studying the positions of the opposing armies may, it is pointed out, possibly have been confused as to the German entrenchments said to have been erected on the river Aisne which they conclude to be the river of that name well inside the French border. There is also a small stream called the Aisne running into the Ourthe at Bomal, below Liege, and this may be the one mentioned, as it would thus form an extension of the defensive works thrown up by the Germans after they encountered Belgian opposition at Liege.

Belgium anticipates an attempt by Germany to cross Dutch territory and has requested Holland to state her intentions regarding the resistance to a breach of her neutrality.

Sveaborg, the great Russian fortress in Finland, awaits a bombardment or a battle, as the commander has ordered all civilians to leave there and also Helsingfors.

Paris reports Montenegrin troops occupying Tarabosch, overlooking Scutari, Albania, where severe fighting between Montenegrins and Turks occurred during the Balkan war.

Considerable sums of English gold are to be deposited in Ottawa, Canada, to facilitate payments without running the risk of shipping money across the Atlantic.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Aug. 12.—3:10 a. m.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company at Rome says that a dispatch from Berlin gives an official statement by General von Stein regarding the siege of Liege. The German commander denies the loss of 20,000 men but does not give figures of his losses. He says that only a small number of German troops were engaged in order to mask the movements of the bulk of the force.

The enemy's advice attacking force, he says, was completely annihilated and while admitting that the forts remain intact, explains this by saying:

"The Emperor did not wish to sacrifice life unnecessarily, but so soon as the heavy artillery arrives the forts will be taken without the loss of a man."

General von Stein admits that the capture of the forts is a difficult problem because of the unfavorable ground about them, and further, because the population of the town, including the women, shot at the German troops from behind the surge and, criminally, hitting the German commander concludes with the remark that "it must not be forgotten that the Belgian force is numerically superior to ours."

The military position at Liege, Belgium also along the Franco-German frontier where the opposing outposts are in touch and in Alsace where severe engagements between a French invading force and the German defenders recently were fought is explained in dispatch from the French foreign minister received this morning.

Rumors regarding the loss of the forts of Liege by the Belgian troops are entirely false. Only small groups of German soldiers entered the town itself under cover of darkness. All the encircling forts, twelve in number, are intact.

"Small unimportant engagements have occurred along the whole line where the French and German armies are facing each other from Belgium opposite the southernmost part of Alsace to Liege, Belgium. In these encounters the French cavalry has always maintained its superiority over the German mounted troops while our artillery has been splendidly served.

"Our troops have kept the crests and passes of the Vosges mountains, and they dominate the heights of Alsace.

"A line between Thann (22 miles southwest of Kolmar, Alsace) and Altkirch (the first position occupied by the French army after its invasion of Alsace) is held by our armies. This line runs slightly to the rear of Muelhausen.

The French government indignantly denied that there was any violation of German territory by the French army before the declaration of war."

FLYERS MAKE NEW RECORDS AT KALAMAZOO

Kalamazoo, Mich., Aug. 12.—With a world's record, equalled and the track record broken, the Grand Circuit meeting opened auspiciously Tuesday at Recreation Park. In the first heat of the Horseman and Spirit of the Times Futurity, for 2-year-old pacers, Anna Bradford, paced a mile in 2:05 1-4, which equals the record for 3-year-old fillies, made by Miss De Forrest at Lexington, Ky., in 1911. In the final heat of the 2:04 pace Walter Cochato made the distance in 2:02 1-4. The former race record was 2:05 3-4, made by Minor Hef in 1908.

The 2:05 1-4 went four heats and was carried away. Maynick took the first two and looked to have the race won, but Omar won the third and fourth heats by splendid finishes in the stretch.

In the 2:24 trot, purse $2,000, Margaret Drusin, favorite, lost the first heat to McCloskey and then captured three in a row.

The 2:04 pace went to Walter Cochato in straight heats.

Wednesday's program is the heaviest financially ever given on a Michigan track. The Paper Mill stake for 2:11 trotters, purse $10,000; Horseman and Spirit of the Times Futurity, for 3-year-old trotters, $10,000; the Horseman and Spirit of the Times Futurity, for 2-year-old trotters, $3,000, and the 4:15 pace, for $2,000, comprise the card.

TRUE SPORTSMEN WILL POSTPONE THE YACHT RACE

New York, Aug. 12.—In view of the grave conditions in Europe the New York Yacht Club does not consider it proper for the races for the America's cup to be held this October. G. A. Cormack, secretary of the club, so cabled Tuesday to H. L. Garrett of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, through which Sir Thomas Lipton sent his challenge. Mr. Cormack's cable message read:

"We regret that in view of the grave conditions due to the war we do not think it proper to race in October. We are willing to postpone the series until 1915 subject to further negotiations as to date. We request a cable reply as soon as possible."

Sir Thomas Lipton had cabled from London under date of August 6, this query:

"In view of serious war conditions, if I can communicate with you, will your committee kindly let Shamrock remain distant?"

Under the conditions of the deed of gift of the America's cup, the challenging yacht must cross the ocean under her own sails. It is assumed here that Sir Thomas feared that the Shamrock during a long trip under her own sails might be captured by warships hostile to England. The Shamrock was well on her way to the United States when Sir Thomas' request was received.

The New York Yacht Club replied that the committee representing the New York Yacht Club did not possess authority to change the conditions of the deed of gift.

The message yesterday, however, explained the attitude of the club.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and glossy at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears; and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Agents, Hall's Drug Store.

No, Maude, dear, the oarsman wouldn't necessarily make a good politician just because he has a strong pull.

COBB SIGNED LONG CONTRACT WITH TIGERS

Detroit, Aug. 12.—Tyrus Cobb, prize center fielder of the Detroit American-league team, Tuesday set at rest reports that he intended jumping to the Federal League, by signing a contract to play three more years with the Tigers. The contract does not contain the maligned 10-day clause. Neither does it carry an increase in his salary, which is said to be $15,000 a year. The contract under which Cobb now is playing contains this clause, but it expires at the end of the present season. When Cobb completes the three seasons for which he has just signed he will have played 13 years with Detroit.

Decrease in Steamer Passengers for Past Year Worries Big Employers

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Aug. 12.—The falling off in steamer passengers from abroad for the year up to last week as compared with the same week a year ago, was 300,000, which according to steamship agents and contractors means a corresponding decrease in the supply for the labor market. Should the war continue any length of time the impression prevails that unskilled labor will be at a premium for some time to come.

Already the heads of corporations employing large forces of laborers, contractors and city officials engaged in public works are worried over the effects of the European war on the labor market. It is generally conceded that immigration for a year or more will be seriously affected by the war.

Of the immigration to this country last year more than a third came over in the steamers.

A class of 42 was instructed in the work of the fifth degree.
A paper, "Woman Speakers at the Farmers' Institutes" was read by Sister Sadie Palmer of Etta Grange. The young people of Etta Grange gave a play entitled "A Burlesque Grange Meeting," followed by reading by Martha Davis of Central of Jersey Grange. Next was discussion in County Experiment Farm, by O. B. Young, S. M. Smiles, G. M. Conine, Bro. Osborn, Carrie Montgomery and others.
The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, The breweries have circulated and filed a petition to annul all of the temperance legislation, including the Rose local option law, and prevent any further legislation against the greatest evil that confronts the American people today, and allow the sale or giving of intoxicating liquor to any man, woman or child and at any time or place; therefore be it

Resolved, by the Licking County Pomona Grange here assembled, that we as an order, whose principles are the upbuilding of mankind, are heartily in favor of the amendment to the constitution, forbidding the manufacture and sale within the state. Also that we are in favor of National Prohibition, as provided for in the Hobson bill now in congress. And be it further

Resolved, That we, as an order, think as our forefathers did that taxation without representation is unjust. Therefore we are in favor of the proposed amendment to the constitution granting woman suffrage.
A resolution relating to an experiment farm for Licking county was also adopted.

The next Pomona will meet with Wyoming Valley at Vanatta, Oct. 10. SECRETARY.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Backache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

War and Commerce.

The foreign trade and business relations of the United States would have been much less interrupted could Europe have adopted the American principle of exemption of private property from capture at sea in war.

At the Hague conference in 1907, the American delegation made a plea for such exemption from capture. This principle has always been advocated by our government. France, Great Britain, Russia, Japan and other governments opposed it at the Hague, and it was beaten.

In more barbarous times, wives and children were captured and sold into slavery, cities were burned, and non-combatants put to the sword.

Gradually these wicked customs have been refined, as respects the lives and freedom of non-combatants, and as respects property on land. Even in a country so backward and reactionary as Mexico, non-combatants have been mostly safe, and destruction of private property has been at least the exception.

Yet in the matter of capture of private property at sea, the old archaic principles of ancient warfare yet prevail in all their barbarism. The warriors may be too cultured to attack women and children. Yet they will capture the food supplies that will keep those women and children from starvation. They will seize the materials of manufacture that will permit a country to maintain its economic existence.

Nothing is gained by these survivals of savage practices. History shows few instances where nations have been overpowered by blows at economic prosperity. Besieged cities always eat horseflesh rather than submit. It is only by direct attack on fighting power that war can win. The subjection of the commerce of the world to the terror of naval attack is thus a medieval survival. The United States has the glory of having led the fight against this barbarism.

The principal activity of the society girl at the summer resorts is sitting on the piazza and keeping her white shoes clean.

International Law.

The vast fabric of international law contains many libraries of dusty volumes, and the best thought of the world's foremost jurists for generations. It is a complicated and elaborate system supposed to be binding on all civilized and enlightened nations.

But at the first discharge of cannon, the war lords of Europe cast this code of right and justice into the waste basket. National agreements are contemptuously torn up, and the barbaric rule of might makes right becomes the law of the land.

Here is the one great weakness in the propaganda for universal peace. It is conceivable that the great powers of the world may before long be able to unite in some kind of international police to control savage and semi-civilized peoples, and compel them to respond to the demands of civilized society.

But what international force shall control the great powers of the earth, which armed to the teeth are ready to fly at each other's throats, and to disregard all national good faith and all honorable and righteous precedents?

Luke McLuke

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

Another great trouble with the world is that everybody thinks everybody else's business is more important than his own.

Lots of married men who do not care much for turkey will let their fondness for chicken get them into a lot of trouble.

Every man knows that what is laziness in the Other Fellow is Frigidity from Overwork in his case. If people would send in a lost advertisement every time they lose their tempers, each newspaper would have to issue a 9,000-page sheet every day.

The reason why a man brings his wife a two-bit box of candy and pays $2 for the box of candy he brings the Stenographer is because his wife would fuss with him if he purchased anything expensive for her.

It may be difficult to interest the boys in geography this fall as they will contend that everything they learn about European boundaries will soon be upset.

It is possible that some people who have been complaining about the drought are now worrying about the rains. It's a difficult thing to please everybody.

When a married man starts on his vacation, his friends inquire: "Does your wife go along, or is this a pleasure trip?"

"It's Fortunate."
"Is dem you-all's chickens?"
"Cohese dey's my-all's chickens. Who's chickens did you 'spose dey was?"

"I wasn't 'sposed' nuffin about 'em. But I will say dat it's mighty lucky dat a chicken won't come a 'running' an' a waggin' its tail when its regular owner whistles, same as a dog."—Washington Star.

American Shipping.

The restless, achieving American people cut the Panama continental backbone that defied every other race of workers. They light and protect rocky and sandy coasts with an efficiency elsewhere unknown. But in the operation of shipping they have made a failure. It is the one great world industry which they are content to leave to other people.

In time of peace, a profitable avenue for labor and capital is lost. In time of war, it may not be possible to get products transported to foreign shores, as the country is now realizing with consternation.

There has been a half century of controversy between different ideas. Shall the government pay subsidies, shall it remove the restrictions placed on foreign built ships, shall it place preferential duties on imports in foreign ships? It seems impossible to get a majority for any one plan.

For thirty years it was maintained that if Americans could buy ships abroad, an enormous tonnage now owned by our business men, but sailed under foreign laws, would come under our flag. The law of 1912 permitted such registry, but no such ships have been transferred.

The heart of the problem is this, which must be admitted from all points of view: It costs more to operate under the American flag. A prominent ship owner, who has vessels under both registries, says it costs him $133.15 per day for an American ship carrying 1,100,000 feet of lumber, and but $130.81 per day for a British ship carrying 3,200,000 feet of lumber.

A sailor's lot is called a dog's life. The American government has tried to ameliorate it by a code of protective laws. This makes the operation of ships cost more money. It is not likely that our people want any necessary protections removed. But a shipping code largely created as far back as 1792 must contain many burdensome restrictions, that could and should be removed by agreement of all interests.

It is sometimes the innocent bystander to a fight who gets hurt. The United States is an "onlooker" in the European war and while the possibility of entanglement seems very remote, it will pay to be careful.

The Pittsburg Dispatch, a Republican newspaper, pays this deserved tribute to President Wilson: "While there is much in Mexico that is not ideal, when we compare conditions with those in Europe, we can render thanks for a president who was determined not to have war."

The yellow newspapers are getting some splendid war dispatches direct from their rewrite men in the back office.

GLORY AND GOODNESS.

We can't all rise to shining heights of glory, we can't all climb Fame Mountain's snowy hood, but we can make our lives all hunkydory, and worth the while, if we will be good. The lust for wealth bespeaks the spirit's blindness; when I am dead I'd rather have folks say, "His heart possessed the milk of human kindness," than have them speak of seeds I put away. A little fame too often makes us naughty, makes us forget that we're but common mud, and we swell up, until, becoming dotty, we take a fall, and make a sick'ning thud. When we've success in sordid worldly matters, we feel contempt for all the ones who fail; we view with scorn the poor man's rags and tatters, and heedless hear the hungry orphan's wail. We waste our lives in tawdry triumphs winning, for useless gawds we strive and toil and grind; and even now, as at the world's beginning, the kind heart beats the proud and mighty mind. Let us be good, be kind, of man and maiden, let us be true, and squarely play the game, and we'll stack high among the hosts of A-Iden, and that will beat your little Hall of Fame.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jacobs, 14 Mahon street, Newark, O.

William H. Maxwell, superintendent of New York's public schools, quotes with no little zest a composition, based on a moving picture play, that a boy of ten wrote. The best paragraph ran:

The villan curled his mustash, and seeing the pure virgins shreeks ha ha ha mine or deaths blud is on m yhead this dagger stabs thee to thy utmost sole ha ha ha, con-gue! But the good hero, kungs, and says O hevins star one step and thy ded body lies at my door, lay won parm on the virgins korps and it was better if you was drowned with a millstone. The other day a young woman teacher took eight of her pupils through the Museum of Natural History. "Well, my boy, where did you go with your teacher this afternoon?" asked the mother of one of them on his return, with joyous promptness he answered, "She took us to a dead circus."—Christian Register.

LILY LEENING

Most members of "La Stella," the name given in Paris of the Women's Auxiliary Aviation Corps, of the French Army, have volunteered for active duty for their country. They will scout over German or any other territory to report to the commanding generals the location of the enemy.

Among them are some very daring aviators who have nerve enough for this duty. So little news of the operation of the French army is coming from Paris that it is not known if the services of any of these women have been accepted nor if any of them are actually in the field. Should the loss of aviators prove heavy and they are needed there is no doubt they will be called on to sail over the German-French frontier.

The plaintiff says he is now old enough that he no longer needs the home for Mrs. Betz. They were divorced some time ago in probate court.

The private car of the czar of Russia is said to be practically dynamite proof, and owing to its weight it could not be run on most of the European lines. The car is elegantly furnished and also contains a chapel, where prayers are offered for his safety. ## Cold Facts.

The attorneys for the plaintiff in a suit before Federal Judge Smith McPherson of Iowa were attempting to introduce into the record of the case the diary of the deceased mother of the defendant, which contained references to a love affair between her daughter, a widow, and the defendant, also dead, against whose estate the suit was brought. The court finally ruled that the diary might be admitted, but before so ruling he told the jury this story:

"Down in my country," said Judge McPherson. "Bill Leveridge was trying to keep from paying his landlord the rent due on the farm he had been working. It was necessary for Bill's attorneys to show that the winter had been an especially hard one. To prove the extent of the difficulties under which Bill had labored Bill's diary was introduced, and among other entries told before the jury was this: "'Nov. 27.—Ground froze on this date and stayed frozen all winter!'"—Saturday Evening Post.

A Guileless Chinese Artist.

In the fourth century A. D. there lived in China an artist who was also a poet. His name was Ku Kai Chih. In London there is a painting, a long scroll, which for at least a thousand years has been treasured as his work, and, though that cannot be proved, it is in all probability a painting by his hand. One day, we are told, he entrusted to a friend a chestful of paintings which he had collected. For better security he fastened the lid of the chest and sealed the fastening with a seal. The friend, however, coveted the paintings and bit on the simple expedient of removing the bottom of the box and so abstracting them. When the box was restored to Ku Kai Chih he broke the seal and found it empty. But he suspected no theft and expressed no surprise. Beautiful paintings, he said, communicate with supernatural beings. They had changed their form and flown away like men when they join the immortals.—Louis Binyon in Atlantic.

French Detective's Revenge.

M. Calchas, the famous French detective, was noted for his skill as a "shadower." Having quarreled for administrative reasons with M. Lepine during the latter's reign at the prefecture, he threatened to have his vengeance.

"It's no use trying to kill me," said the prefect genially. "I am too well looked after for that."

"I've a much better and less obvious plan than that," retorted the detective. "Just wait and see."

A week later M. Calchas appeared in the prefect's study and presented an ominous document. It was the record of M. Lepine's doings day by day, hour by hour, almost minute by minute, since their last interview, and it was with rather a wan smile that the prefect perused it. Satisfied with his characteristic vengeance, the detective assured M. Lepine that the "dossier" for that week would not be given to the world.—Paris Cor. London Telegraph.

A Bird With Hands.

In the forests of British Guiana, says the London Globe, lives the hoactia, a singular bird, whose young possess a tree claw at the end of each wing, which they use almost as the monkey uses his hands in tree climbing. The nest of the hoactia is in a tree overhanging the water, and the young, unlike most birds, are active from the first. The outermost quill feathers of the wing, which might hamper the free use of the claws, do not grow much until the rest of the wing is strong enough to make climbing less necessary. Then they grow out, and the claws are absorbed. The adult bird does not need them. Should a young hoactia fall into the water it makes for the shore and seizes a branch, up which it quickly climbs.

The Oldest Epigram.

An epigram must pass through many hands and get much polishing before it is a perfect jewel. You may remember, says the London Chronicle, how Oscar Wilde sent on the stage the man of the world through the drawing room door with the epigram, "There is one thing I never could resist; that is temptation." But you may trace it from the garden of Eden, where the masculine plea for mercy was that the "woman tempted me."

Earthquake Records.

An average of 185 earthquakes a year has been recorded at the seismological observatory of Rocco di Papa, near Rome, during the last twelve years. Of this number forty-four have originated within a distance of sixty-five miles, while eighty-five had their source more than 3,000 miles away.

More Appropriate.

"Shine 'em up, sir!" cried the young bootblack. "I'll polish 'em so's you can see yer face in 'em, sir."

"Thanks, my good lad, but I'm entirely satisfied to see my feet in them," replied Fogg, and on he went.—Boston Transcript.

Good Hindsight.

"Is Dibble a man who can be depended on to give a good account of himself in an emergency?"

"Yes—after the emergency has passed."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Jailbirds.

It is estimated that in the United States 132 persons out of 100,000 are in prison on any given day. In Italy 217, and in the United Kingdom 49.

Be true to your word and your work, and your friend.—John Boyle O'Reilly.

Put a man with a bad temper to the test and you will see that he is testy.

NERVOUS CHILDREN

There is much criticism of modern educational methods that require too much work of school children, allowing them too little time for play and preventing sufficient out-of-door exercise. When the study of music or any other accomplishment, with the necessary practice, is added, the strain is increased.

Under these conditions the blood becomes impoverished and fails to nourish the nerves. The child becomes restless, and twitching of the muscles follows. Sometimes the child stumbles in walking and drops what it tries to hold. Pallor, listlessness, inattention, restlessness and irritability are symptoms that early show that the blood and nerves are failing to meet the demands made upon them.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a safe tonic for children, will build up the blood, strengthen the nerves and help to meet the demands of the growing child. Sufficient out-of-door exercise, nourishing food and ten hours sleep each day, with these tonic pills, will correct even long standing cases of St. Vitus' dance and will calm the nerves of the most irritable child.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A booklet "Diseases of the Nervous System" will be sent free to any parent on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Wheat: 35 1/2@36 1/2 held themselves in reserve today until prices had fallen 2 1/2 cents. Then rest of the market came into play and wheat was sold in large quantities. Weakness at Liverpool had considerable to do with the decline here but the main reason was the continued uncertain outlook for a resumption of export trade from the United States. The market was 1/2 to 3/4 and the setback becoming general to nearly the extreme figures, there was a gradual reaction all around. A general government limitation of shipments to other countries tended to strengthen the corn market. There was a temporary halt in prices, however, when wheat was on the downgrade. The opening which was 1/4 off, was followed by a slight depression and later by gains averaging more than one cent.
Oats: strong upward with corn. At first, though, realizing sales had a bearish effect.
Provisions dropped owing to lower values for hogs. The biggest decline was in pork, which soon showed a loss of 45 cents.

Spiders Are Not Insects.

The spider is not an insect, though probably nine people out of ten would class it under this term. With scorpions and mites, spiders form a class in the animal kingdom known as arachnida. This name is derived from a mythical personage called Arachne, the daughter of a purple dyer of Lydia, who was fabled to have challenged Minerva to a trial of skill in spinning. So indignant was the goddess at this act of boldness that she forthwith transformed the hapless challenger into a spider, presumably in order that she might have the best possible opportunity of practicing the art on which she prided herself so much. Spiders differ from insects in five main particulars. Their eyes are simple instead of compound, they have eight legs in place of six, they do not pass through the metamorphoses which are characteristic of insects, they have no antennae, and their breathings are accomplished by means of lungs and gills instead of by tubes pervading their bodies. These points of distinction are sufficient to determine the fact that it is impossible to class spiders as insects.

Seasickness.

Seasickness comes on oceans, lakes and some rivers. Not every one, however, who travels upon these bodies of water can acquire it, as it appears to come only to those who have a gift for it. It has one great merit not common to all gifts, as it may be acquired without previous practice. Those who are skillful do not have to be taught. Like inspiration and the wonderful one boss shay, it comes to them "all at once and nothing first."

Various cures have been devised for seasickness. One of them is publicity. If you can keep on deck where you will be seen by all men and a few fishes that may be staring at you, it is said to be a great help. The best cure, however, is carefully to remove the water from underneath the particular vessel in which you happen to be passing away. If enough water can be removed the seasickness will be invariably cured.

Seasickness is the only thing you get from the steamship company that you don't pay for.—Life.

Quite Simple.

"Mr. Yaleblue. I want to ask you a question," remarked the Wellesley maiden, to her partner as they entered the conservatory.

"A thousand if you like," replied the gallant collegian.

"What is a kiss?"

"The young man was taken aback, but quickly pulled himself together and firmly said, "This is."

"Sir," replied the indignant seeker after higher culture, "you misunderstand me. The interrogation I put to you was a mathematical problem which I thought might interest a student from Yale college."

"It does," he does," said the junior as he twirled his light mustache, "but if it's a conundrum I give it up."

The maiden's eyes sparkled, and there was music in her voice as she threw out the answer. "Why, it's nothing divided by two."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Corset Ancient Armor.

A French historian of women's dress states that the corset was worn by the ancient Egyptians. This assertion is borne out by the figures carved on the tombs of women, who are invariably represented as wearing a garment strongly resembling the modern corset. There does not appear to be any representation extant of Cleopatra VI, the beloved of Antony, but in one of the temples there is a figure of her predecessor, Cleopatra II, in which the sculptor has endowed her with a corset cut on the lines of those worn today. Whichever was probably unknown to the Egyptians, but a nation capable of constructing pyramids without steam cranes would probably find no difficulty in making stays without busts.—London Standard.

If It Had a Voice.

George Bernard Shaw is a vegetarian who has remained true to the faith, and in a letter to a Chicago woman, reproaching her for her fight against the alight when she still ate meat, Mr. Shaw said:

"The lack of logic prevailing everywhere! We call the tiger a ferocious and ravenous beast, but what would you Chicago ladies be called if, for example, the lamb chop had a voice?"

Forenight.

She—Johnnie needs a new pair of shoes. Ho—Why, saints alive! I brought home a pair for him last night! She—Yes, you did. But as it took you fully six weeks to remember to get them it might be well to start in plain on the next pair.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Easy.

"Tell me, old man," said the perennial seeker after useless knowledge, "why is your hair gray and your beard brown?"

"Easy," answered the facetious old man. "My hair is twenty years older than my beard."—Michigan Gargoyle.

An Instance.

Knicker—Time brings many strange changes. Bocker—Yes. The boy whose mother can't make him wash his neck grows up to be a rich man who goes abroad for baths.—Harper's Bazar.

	Election Board Busy.
	Activities in the office of the board of elections, directed by Clerk Michael Sachs, began early in the evening. The first precinct reported from the third ward shortly before 7:30, and from that time until 11 o'clock members of the board were kept busy tallying the vote.

Candidates, as usual, thronged about the doors of the board's rooms in the Hibbert & Schaus building, but none was admitted except board members and newspaper men.

Many of the township precincts had been ordered to telephone results in, but few did so. Up to a little after 11 o'clock ten precincts outside of Newark city had reported, and at midnight the board adjourned until early Wednesday. By 11:30 Wednesday morning all votes were in, and Clerk Sachs and his assistants hurried through with semi-official totals which are required to be forwarded at once to the office of the secretary of state.

At 10:30 Tuesday night the board ceased its activities for a few moments to partake of supper served in the headquarters by McDaniel. Newspaper representatives participated in disposing of the feast, as guests of the board, with expressions of gratitude to Clerk Sachs.

It is expected the board will devote the late afternoon and part of the night to disposing of disputed ballots and will start on the official count Thursday.

LABORERS ARE REMOVED FROM CIVIL SERVICE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

How to Absorb an Unlucky Complexion.

(Phyllis Moore in Town Talk.)
The face which is admired for its beauty must have a soft, smooth skin, pink and white and youthful looking. The only thing I know of that can make such a complexion out of an aged, faded or discolored one—I mean a natural, not a painted, complexion—is ordinary mercurized wax. This remarkable substance literally absorbs the unsightly cuticle, a little each day, the clear, healthy, girlish skin beneath gradually peeping out until within a week or so it is wholly in evidence. Of course such blemishes as freckles, moth patches, liver spots, blotches and pimples are discarded with the old skin. You will procure an ounce of mercurized wax at the drug store, use like cold cream every night, washing this off mornings, you'll find it a veritable wonder-worker.

Another valuable natural treatment is a lotion to remove wrinkles which can be easily prepared. Dissolve 1 oz. powdered salicylic in 3/4 pt. witch hazel. Bath the face in this and you'll find it "works like magic."

Loren Hansberger returned last night from an extensive trip. He visited Duluth, Chicago, Windsor, Can., and Detroit. Niel Jones, who made the trip with Mr. Hansberger is still in Detroit.

CONGRESS RACE IN CUYAHOGA IS VERY CLOSE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Cleveland, Aug. 12.—Surpassing in interest even the outcome of the vote on gubernatorial and senatorial candidates in Cuyahoga county was the fight over the nomination for congressman in the Twenty-first district. Robert J. Buttkie, Democratic incumbent, was opposed on his ticket by Robert Crosser, present congressman at large. Out of 170 precincts reported this morning, Crosser was leading by less than 1,000 votes and it was said his nomination was not assured.

Congressman William Gordon, Democrat, apparently was renominated in the 26th district. James E. Matthews, the Republican candidate, was unopposed. In the 22d, W. S. Fitzgerald, Republican, and Roy Tuttle, Democrat, were the nominees.

AMPUTATION OF HAND ACCOUNT OF BAD BURN

George Lasco, who had his left hand severely burned in a bottle machine at the American Bottle company on July 21, had his left hand practically amputated at the Sanitarium, Tuesday. All of the hand but the thumb and forefinger was cut away.

The operation was performed by Drs. Harry H. Postal and J. P. H. Stedem. At the time of the accident Lasco's hand remained in the fire of the machine about four minutes. His condition Wednesday was reported as satisfactory.

TWO GAMES ARE SCHEDULED FOR THURSDAY AFT.

During the summer the Thursday afternoon baseball league has been furnishing some very interesting games. At present the dry goods clerks stand in first place in the league as the result of their defeat of the bankers last Thursday.

Thursday afternoon there will be two games. The bankers will clash for the first time with the Y. M. C. A. team, and the Utica team and the Newark grocers will play at Wehrle park. There are splendid athletes on all of these teams, and the games tomorrow should develop something of class. Both games will be called at 1:30 o'clock.

STEAMER COMES TO NEW YORK WITH REFUGEES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Aug. 12.—The Dutch steamer Potsdam from Boulogne, one day overdue, reached New York this morning with more than 800 passengers, many of them American refugees from Europe who left so hurriedly that they were unable to bring their baggage. Because of the crowded conditions, the ship's officers were unable to give the correct classifications of those aboard.

The Potsdam sighted no war vessels on her way across.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, O., Aug. 12.—Whether Former Senator Joseph B. Foraker of Cincinnati or Former Lieut. Gov. Warren G. Harding of Marion, was given the Republican nomination for United States senator by Ohio voters in yesterday's statewide primaries was not clearly indicated in unofficial and incomplete returns received here early this morning. At 2:00 o'clock this morning, Harding was leading his rival from Cincinnati by a narrow margin while former Congressman Ralph D. Cole of Findlay was running third. Harding's managers claimed his nomination by several thousand while Foraker's headquarters asserted the race was close.

John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Aug. 11.—According to early returns, the outstanding features in today's statewide primaries are the close races between Congressman Frank B. Willis, of Ada, and David Tod, of Youngstown, for the Republican nomination for Governor, and between former Lieutenant Governor Warren G. Harding of Marion, and former Senator Joseph B. Foraker of Cincinnati, for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. At 10 o'clock tonight Tod was leading by a fairly safe majority in publican race for United States senator lies between Foraker and Harding, as former Congressman Ralph D. Cole, of Findlay is running third in the counties that have been heard from.

Available returns at 10 o'clock gave: Hogan 8,534; Lentz 3,077; Zimmerman 2,442; Foraker 8,068; Harding 5,489; Cole 2,483.

Governor Cox at a late hour gave out a statement characterizing his renomination as a triumph of progressiveness, and criticizing the Republican opposition for having what he said is a negative program without constructive suggestions. He predicted his own election in November.

The Republican opposition for almost a year has been trying to divert public attention from the real issue, he said. "We present a record of achievement; the opposition presents a puerile criticism, but no suggestion as to a substitute."

Willis headquarters here at 11:30 p. m. declared returns received at that hour justified a claim that Willis will be nominated over Tod by a majority of about 25,000. Mr. Willis was in touch with his headquarters by long distance telephone from the home of his father in Delaware at that time and it was said at his headquarters that he probably would make a statement soon.

At Foraker headquarters it was said that Mr. Foraker would make no statement until tomorrow, when the result of the primary is more definite. Mr. Harding also is not expected to make a statement until then. He is at his home in Marion tonight.

The majorities probably will be about 4 to 1 for Tod and about 7 to 1 for Cox, judging from incomplete returns.

YOUNG WOMAN'S SUDDEN ILLNESS CAUSES DEATH

Miss Wilma Walters, aged 13 years who made her home with Miss Nan Showman in Cherry Valley died on the operating table at the Sanitarium about 9 o'clock last night after an illness of only a day's duration of obstruction of the bowels.

The young woman was taken ill Monday morning and grew rapidly worse until Tuesday afternoon when she was taken to the Sanitarium in the Basler & Braden's ambulance.

It was seen that the only hope lay in an operation but death was the result. She is survived by a mother and step-father, the latter being J. J. Goodin an oil well blower of Fredonia, and a half brother.

VICTIM OF EPILEPSY. William Johnson of Cornells, N. Y., fell in an epileptic fit on the North Side of the Square Tuesday night, and was taken to the Sanitarium in Basler & Braden's ambulance. He will recover.

Censorship Still More Rigid

(By Melville E. Stone, General Manager Associated Press.)

New York, Aug. 11.—Advices to the Associated Press from London state today that an increasingly rigid censorship is being imposed on all matter from Brussels. This increases the delay on such dispatches as are allowed to come through. The French Cable Company, which, except those with terminals in the British Isles, is the only direct line to Europe now in operation, has given notice that the congestion on its lines is such that all messages are subject to a minimum delay of forty-eight hours. In an effort to avoid this delay direct dispatches of the Associated Press from Paris are being routed through London, but, the delay there is also very great. Dispatches which left Paris early yesterday are being received with a delay of from fifteen to seventeen or more hours, and other Paris dispatches have suffered even greater delay in transmission.

There is absolutely no direct communication with Germany or Austria, by any routing. A few censored dispatches are coming through via London and these are re-censored for transmission out of England. The Associated Press has been making every effort to communicate with Germany through the wireless companies operating from New York. On Sunday a message was sent to the Berlin bureau of the Associated Press and the wireless company notified the Associated Press that it had been received in Germany, but since then, only fragmentary signals have been exchanged over that system.

In ability to secure wireless communication with Germany since the cutting of the direct German cable at the outbreak of the war and the increasing rigor of the London censorship still further obscures what has actually transpired within the military zone.

NUMEROUS CLASHES OF FRENCH AND GERMANS ARE OCCURRING DAILY

COX AND HOGAN, TOD AND FORAKER, IN HAMILTON CO.

(Associated Press Telegram) Cincinnati, Aug. 11.—Governor James M. Cox had a commanding lead over John J. Whitacre in Hamilton county with nearly half of the precincts for the Democratic nomination for governor, while David Tod was running far ahead of Frank B. Willis for the Republican nomination for Governor. Timothy S. Hogan indicated that he would have a big majority throughout the county over his two opponents, John J. Lentz and John L. Zimmerman while former Senator Joseph B. Foraker has tallied more than twice as many votes as his two opponents, Warren G. Harding, and Ralph D. Cole. Two hundred precincts out of 527 in Hamilton county gave Cox 2996; Whitacre 470; Hogan 2,364; Lentz, 416; Zimmerman, 482; Foraker, 5,438; Harding, 1,945; Cole, 688.

390 precincts gave Tod 8872; Willis 3501.

VOTE IN CLEVELAND.

Cleveland, Aug. 11.—Scattering and incomplete returns from 18 precincts in Cleveland indicate that Cox is running far ahead of Whitacre. Tod is leading Willis by a good margin and Harding and Hogan appear to be in the lead for the senatorship on their respective tickets.

The total vote in Cuyahoga county is estimated at about two-third the normal. The count is very slow.

ASHBROOK WINS IN RICHLAND BY BIG PLURALITY

(Special to The Advocate.) Mansfield, Aug. 12.—(3 A. M.)—Forty-eight out of fifty precincts in Richland county for congress gave Ashbrook 1950, Green 1142, McBride 328, Fulton 88.

Ashbrook carried every precinct but two in the city of Mansfield.

Mobilization of British Forces is Near Completion—Official Announcement Made of Engagements Between French and German Troops Inside the French Border—The Twelve Forts Surrounding Liege Remain Intact, Each Being Able to Resist the Attacks of the Germans Although Outnumbered Ten to One at Every Fort—Constant Shelling Day and Night.

French and German troops are facing each other to the north of Verdun. There have been numerous clashes of a minor nature probably preliminary to an extensive engagement in the near future.

The respective positions of the Germans and Belgians before Liege apparently are unchanged.

German forces are making careful reconnaissances in the district of Hesbaye, which is believed to mean that Germany will take the offensive north of Liege.

According to French reports the Germans have been unsuccessful in their attempt to drive the French from their positions outside Muehlenhausen.

The British war office information bureau says there is reason to believe that the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, for which British and French warships were waiting, have taken refuge in the Dardanelles.

Clashes between the Austrians and Russians so far have been of minor importance.

GERMANS BURN MANY VILLAGES WEST OF LIEGE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Brussels, via London, Aug. 12.—Hostilities began Monday between German cavalry and the Belgian cavalry outposts in the Hesbaye district. This district is to the west of Liege and north of the Meuse, and forms part of the provinces of Liege, Limburg and Namur.

The Germans have begun a systematic reconnoitering of Hesbaye in order to discover the positions of the Belgian field army. Their cavalry patrols are followed by infantry detachments.

On Sunday German cavalry passed the outskirts of Lixhe, following a route to the south.

The newspapers here announce that a German aeroplane flying over Namur was brought down by the fire of the forts and that two officers in the machine, uninjured by the fall, were taken prisoners.

Six thousand German troops, it is reported, seized the station of Landon, west of Liege, and stopped a train from Brussels. They permitted the passengers to go, but destroyed the station, removed the rails and drove out railway employees. The passengers were compelled to return on foot to Tienenmont.

According to fugitives from Landon, the Germans burned many villages, giving the inhabitants of them half an hour for flight. The German force, it was said, had field and machine guns.

According to an official statement issued here, the situation at the seat of war was unchanged tonight.

The People reports that during mass for soldiers serving at the front, held in St. Antoine's church, at La Louviere, a suburb of Charleroi, a small fire caused a panic in which 14 women and girls were killed and over fifty injured.

The following official announcement was made last night: Germans have evacuated the Longdon fort at Liege and have retreated at other points.

The condition of the Belgian army is good. There was no fighting yesterday.

Important forces of German cavalry with sailing guns attacked on Tuesday regiments of lancers near Tienenmont, 12 miles southeast of Louvain. The latter routed the enemy at first, but later, retired before strong reinforcements.

GOV. JAMES M. COX.

aker's headquarters asserted the race was close. Supporters of Congressman Frank B. Willis of Ada, declared early today that he had defeated former State Senator David Tod of Youngstown by at least 35,000 votes. Returns from the larger cities early last night gave Tod the lead for a time but the vote in the smaller cities and rural districts soon cut down the Youngstown man's chances of nomination.

Governor Cox was undoubtedly renominated, defeating his opponent, Congressman John J. Whitacre of Canton by three to one according to unofficial figures. Attorney General Hogan apparently received the Democratic nomination for United States Senator. At his office last night it was claimed that he had received 60 per cent. of the Democratic votes cast, leaving 40 per cent. to be divided between former Congressman John J. Lentz of Columbus, and the cities but Willis supporters are confident that the country vote will swell the Willis total. Partial returns from Cincinnati show that the voters of that city registered their preferences for Foraker in the ratio of two to one.

Governor Cox undoubtedly has defeated his opponents, Congressman John J. Whitacre of Canton, by a large majority for re-nomination. Attorney General Hogan also is a winner over his two opponents, John L. Zimmerman of Springfield and former Congressman John J. Lentz of Columbus for the Democratic nomination for United States senator. As early as 8 o'clock tonight, Governor Cox and Attorney General Hogan, from their offices in the state house where they received the election returns, exchanged congratulations, feeling confident that they would be the standard-bearers of their party in the fall campaign. Early returns indicate that the Re-

In an article on Thrift, published in the last issue of Finance, J. H. Puelicher, a Milwaukee banker, has pointed out the need of the cultivation of this faculty among the young and has given some valuable suggestions as well as concrete examples of how this can be done. His article is interesting, and timely, and we quote liberally from it, feeling sure that the lesson sought to be impressed may be learned to their advantage by Newark men interested in education, philanthropy, publicity, or business, who may, not otherwise have given the subject any considerable thought.

Mr. Puelicher handles the subject of Thrift from an economic standpoint and draws general conclusions which he attempts successfully to make apply to every community from a standpoint of practicality. Thrift is contrasted with waste and extravagance, the one being a valuable community asset, the other symptoms of deterioration and ultimate ruin, whether applied to a nation, state, business or home.

Some of the paragraphs are reproduced as they were written as the style could not be improved.

"History is replete with accounts of nations which rose while confronted with hardships of development, but when the earlier tasks were accomplished and the road to prosperity was reached, forgot that sturdy growth and rugged health are the results of vigorous effort. They fell.

"Our very progressiveness makes us ask 'Can we go on in the way we are going?' Are there no indications of deterioration, fore-shadowing decay? An honest answer is, 'Our wonderful success has achieved a wealth which is encouraging a dangerous extravagance.'

"Young men, given opportunities which only wealth can buy waste both in riotous living. The father who by hard work and harder economy, achieved this wealth neglected to teach the son the lessons of thrift which circumstances had taught him.

"Economy, saving, thrift, are words of kindred meaning. Mac

American Shipping.

The restless, achieving American people cut the Panama continental backbone that defied every other race of workers. They light and protect rocky and sandy coasts with an efficiency elsewhere unknown. But in the operation of shipping they have made a failure. It is the one great world industry which they are content to leave to other people.

In time of peace, a profitable avenue for labor and capital is lost. In time of war, it may not be possible to get products transported to foreign shores, as the country is now realizing with consternation.

There has been a half century of controversy between different ideas. Shall the government pay subsidies, shall it remove the restrictions placed on foreign built ships, shall it place preferential duties on imports in foreign ships? It seems impossible to get a majority for any one plan.

For thirty years it was maintained that if Americans could buy ships abroad, an enormous tonnage now owned by our business men, but sailed under foreign laws, would come under our flag. The law of 1912 permitted such registry, but no such ships have been transferred.

The heart of the problem is this, which must be admitted from all points of view: It costs more to operate under the American flag. A prominent ship owner, who has vessels under both registries, says it costs him $133.15 per day for an American ship carrying 1,100,000 feet of lumber, and but $130.81 per day for a British ship carrying 3,200,000 feet of lumber.

A sailor's lot is called a dog's life. The American government has tried to ameliorate it by a code of protective laws. This makes the operation of ships cost more money. It is not likely that our people want any necessary protections removed. But a shipping code largely created as far back as 1792 must contain many burdensome restrictions, that could and should be removed by agreement of all interests.

It is sometimes the innocent bystander to a fight who gets hurt. The United States is an "onlooker" in the European war and while the possibility of entanglement seems very remote, it will pay to be careful.

The Pittsburg Dispatch, a Republican newspaper, pays this deserved tribute to President Wilson: "While there is much in Mexico that is not ideal, when we compare conditions with those in Europe, we can render thanks for a president who was determined not to have war."

The yellow newspapers are getting some splendid war dispatches direct from their rewrite men in the back office.

GLORY AND GOODNESS.

We can't all rise to shining heights of glory, we can't all climb Fame Mountain's snowy hood, but we can make our lives all bunkydory, and worth the while, if we will be good. The lust for wealth bespeaks the spirit's blindness; when I am dead I'd rather have folks say, "His heart possessed the milk of human kindness," than have them speak of scads I put away. A little fame too often makes us naughty, makes us forget that we're but common mud, and we swell up, until, becoming dotty, we take a fall, and make a sick'ning thud. When we've success in sordid worldly matters, we feel contempt for all the ones who fail; we view with scorn the poor man's rags and tatters, and heedless hear the hungry orphan's wail. We waste our lives in tawdry triumphs winning, for useless gauds we strive and toil and grind; and even now, as at the world's beginning, the kind heart beats the proud and mighty mind. Let us be good, be kind, oh man and maiden, let us be true, and squarely play the game, and we'll stack high among the hosts of Al-deen, and that will beat your little Hall of Fame.

It may be difficult to interest the boys in geography this fall as they will contend that everything they learn about European boundaries will soon be upset.

It is possible that some people who have been complaining about the drought are now worrying about the rains. It's a difficult thing to please everybody.

CURBING THE SPEED DEVILS

Paragraphs

Get the Ships.
Most of opposition in the Senate to the bill granting American registry to foreign-built ships is merely vexatious. The emergency is great, but where the reasons for delay are not plainly in the interest of a shipping monopoly that should have been overthrown long ago, they are trifling. Commerce amounting to thousands of millions a year has been paralyzed by the withdrawal of foreign carriers from the sea. We are practically without a merchant marine because most of the people would not have it with a subsidy and the others would not enter the field without a subsidy. The problem today is how to get ships entitled to display the American flag in sufficient numbers to maintain our foreign commerce. —New York World.

The Irony of It.
And to think all this should happen just when we are about to open the Panama Canal to the commerce of the world. —San Antonio Express.

German Navy.
The German navy has no traditions behind it, but it has the perfection of discipline, organization, training and equipment. If it does not give a good account of itself it will belie the judgment of a great many impartial experts who have closely watched its development. —Brooklyn Eagle.

England and Germany.
The whole German proposition for avoiding direct war with England fell down on this small technical detail of moving German troops as mere passengers through Belgium. The German appeal to the British people was as futile as the previous appeal to the British government. Evidently the mad passion for war is as dominating in the British islands as it is among all the leading continental powers with the single exception of Italy. —Hartford Courant.

War Boycott.
The "war boycott" that the Socialists of Europe were going to declare in the event of international conflict hasn't materialized. For years we have been told, and some of us may have believed it, that the Socialists of France would never take up arms against their "brothers" of Germany, and that the Socialist across the Rhine felt the same way. War was to be stopped by a gigantic strike of the fighting men. It sounded interesting, but the sight of Frenchmen and Germans flocking to the colors is an action that speaks more loudly than words. Now here comes H. G. Wells, one of the leaders of the English Socialists, declaring that never was a war as righteous as this one. —Boston Transcript.

Preparedness for War.
What sober-minded, clear-thinking men have contended all along that preparedness for war is the greatest temptation to get into war, is exemplified now. If the nations of Europe had been obliged to wait to build navies and to raise an equip vast armies, no navies would have been built and no armies raised. There never would be a war if the prospective combatants were forced to wait a year to think it over and count the cost. —Ohio State Journal.

Generally speaking, it is a great deal easier for a woman to obey her husband than it is to honor him.

A man puts on a performance lasting fifteen minutes, and then stands around for a couple of hours waiting for someone to compliment him upon it.

A man will run his legs off to tell you that your cow has broken out of the pasture, but he won't devote three minutes of his time to the task of driving her back into the inclosure.

BY "HOP"

Beggars on Horseback.
Horses are cheap in Chile. According to Francis J. G. Mattland in "Chile: Its Land and People," you can buy a horse in Santiago for $25 or $30 and for less in the country. In illustration, he quotes a little happening, witnessed by Miss May Crommelin in Mendoza: "Up rode a gaucho, dressed in white, if I remember rightly, no worse than his fellows, at any rate. He bestrode a nag, sorry enough, yet still capable, and wore a medal round his neck. Off came his hat with a bow of much grace, but he stretched out his hand toward the window grating imploring alms. 'It's all right, he's one of our beggars.' The town has so many licensed ones who are allowed to come round, said my hostess, looking out over my shoulder. So, instead of dismissing him with a little 'Parion, little brother, for not giving you anything,' some small coins were placed in his palm. 'Dios lo pague' (God will repay it), was the dignified response, and with a farewell bow of perfect politeness this beggar on horseback rode on."

Cardie's Amenities.
Cardie had his fling against science, but they were not very virulent. Nevertheless, in regard to literature, he placed himself in the position of the ill bird that built its own nest, as witness the following amenities: "Kiss is a 'curried' head dog,' whatever that may mean; Shelley is 'a ghastly object'; Coleridge is 'a pretty, obstructed looking old man talking in a maudlin sleep an infinite deal of nothing'; Lamb, 'a purr cratur, with a thin streak of cockney wit, nothing humorous but his dress'; Walter Scott, 'a toothless retainer of old wives' fables'; Brougham, 'an eternal grinder of commonplace'; Wordsworth, 'sneoping to extract a spiritual sketchup from mushrooms that were little better than toadstools'; Sir Robert Peel, 'a plausible fox'; J. W. Croker, 'an unbalanced hound'; Lord John Russell, 'a turnspit of good pedigree'; Lord Melbourne, 'a monkey.'"

Lighthouse Lenses.
In the latter half of the eighteenth century one of the members of a little scientific society in Liverpool told a brother scientist that he could read a newspaper by the light of a small candle at a distance of thirty feet. The second scientist said the thing was impossible. To prove his contention the first scientist coated the inside of a shallow wooden box with sloping pieces of looking glass so as to form a concave lens, placed it behind a farthing candle, and readily deciphered the small print at the stipulated distance. The experiment was witnessed by a Liverpool dock master. He was a thinking man and saw great possibilities in this learned jest. He straightway adapted the principle to lighthouse requirements, and forthwith the modern reflected light, with its miles of reflected range and untold life saving powers, sprang into being.

Betrothals in Germany.
There are many curious betrothal customs in Germany that are found in no place else in the world. As soon as a German girl is betrothed she is addressed as "bride" by her fiancé. The betrothal is a more serious affair than in England, and is not so easily broken. The girl is called "bride" until the wedding, when she assumes the title of "wife." Immediately upon the betrothal the lovers exchange rings, which, if the course of true love runs smooth, are to be worn ever afterward. The woman wears her betrothal ring on the third finger of her left hand until she is married, and then it is transferred to the third finger of her right hand. The man continues to wear his ring just as the wife wore hers when she was a bride.

Men and Fools.
A man can be as big a fool at thirty as he can be at twenty or, for that matter, at sixty, with this difference, that at twenty he doesn't know that he is a fool. He thinks that he is a god and enjoys the experience. At sixty he knows well enough what he is and thanks his stars that he has yet another chance before going down to the grave. But at thirty-five he has neither the illusions of youth nor the consolations of age. He is young enough to feel foolish and old enough to know better.—"Curing Christopher."

The Split Infinitive.
Mme. Sarah Grand writes to the London Express: "The split infinitive is a somewhat serious subject with me, for I believe it is to be found in my own early work, with other errors of my youth of which I have long repented. When I come across the 'split' in my reading now it pulls me up with a horrid jar, and I believe that must always be the case once the ear has been tuned to the rhythm of the best English authors."

Heavenly Match.
Husband (irritably)—It isn't a year since you said you believed our marriage was made in heaven, and yet now you order me around as if I wasn't anybody. Wife (calmly)—Order, you know, is heaven's first law. New York Weekly.

Abstemious.
"I'm not eating very much of late."
"What's the matter, old man? Lost your appetite?"
"No, my credit."—Boston Transcript.

Not Literary.
Jaffi Visiter—You say that a love for books brings you here, my poor man. Prisoner—Yes, sir; pocketbooks. Exchange.

The envious will die, but envy never. Mollers.

LEWIS B. HOUCK, MT. VERNON MAN, PROBABLY WINS

While returns from the fifteen counties comprising the Fifth Appellate district up to 5 o'clock this morning are fragmentary, the indications point to the nomination of Hon. Lewis B. Houck of Mt. Vernon by the Democracy. Hon. H. W. Kuntz of Zanesville was nominated by the Republicans without opposition.

Hon. Edward Kibler of Newark, leads his opponents in 44 of 71 precincts in Licking county. Mr. Houck carries his home county (Knox) by 365 according to complete but unofficial returns. Judge E. M. Wick-

LEWIS B. HOUCK, ham is said to have carried his home county (Delaware). Early this morning Judge Wickham had a small lead over Mr. Houck in Delaware county.

At Delaware Wednesday morning Judge Wickham expressed his belief to the Advocate that Mr. Houck had been nominated.

Knox county complete: Houck 1303, Kibler 134, Adair 128, Wickham 126.

Muskingum county: 51 precincts: Adair 420, Houck 552, Kibler 246, Wickham 101.

Licking county: 44 of 71 precincts in Licking county for Appellate judge gave Robert Adair 146, L. B. Houck, 949, Edward Kibler 1093, E. M. Wickham, 220.

Stark county: Returns on Appellate judge are incomplete but the indications are that Kibler will carry this county.

Mr. Houck is 47 years old. He has practiced law for 22 years, is ex-state senator, was secretary to Gov. Pattison and has held the highest office in Ohio Odd Fellowship.

CHAMPION PACER WITHDRAWN FROM RACING CLASSICS

Kalamazoo, Mich., Aug. 12.—Considerable surprise was expressed by visiting horsemen gathered here for the Grand Circuit races over the announcement that William, the champion pacer, has been withdrawn from the free-for-all race in which he was entered this week.

It is believed that the conqueror of Walter Cochato may not race any more this year. Marvin has shipped the pacer king to Wisconsin to lay up for a week.

It is understood that some flattering offers have been made the owners to exhibit William against time at the fairs, and they have about decided to take advantage of this easy money, as there is nothing to lose.

Columbus Crowds to Attend Picnic At Buckeye Lake.

Large crowds of Columbus members of the Knights of Columbus and delegates from other cities and many villages are expected to attend the picnic of the Knights of Central Ohio Thursday, which will be held at Buckeye Lake. Delegations from Columbus, Zanesville, New Lexington, Athens, Lancaster, Cambridge, Newark and Coshocton will be present. Special morning and afternoon trains have been chartered to convey the Columbus knights to the lake. Columbus Dispatch.

Frederick William, German Crown Prince.

This is the latest photograph of Frederick William, the German Crown Prince, who has become very popular since the European crisis reached an acute stage because of his advocacy of war.

While the Kaiser was seemingly making efforts to act as mediator between Austria-Hungary and Russia; at least giving outward evidence of it, the Crown Prince was shouting for war. The populace in Berlin, which was thrilled by the war ardor made a hero of him and cheered him whenever he was seen on the streets. When the Kaiser and Kaiserin, along with the Crown Prince and Crown Princess, returned Sunday night from Potsdam to the palace in Berlin Unter den Linden was blocked by cheering thousands. The Crown Prince came in for as much of the applause as the Kaiser.

Our Sixteen Striped Flag.
How many stripes in the American flag? Thirteen, of course, yet there's an American flag flown legally today which has sixteen stripes. It is the flag of the revenue cutter service, and the stripes are vertical, not horizontal, as in the ordinary ensign. The stripes nearest the staff is red; then come white and red alternately, so that the outermost stripe is white. The reason for the sixteen stripes is found in the fact that when the revenue flag was authorized, in 1799, there were sixteen states in the Union, three having joined the original thirteen. — New York Tribune.

Discretion.
A lion that had been ill asked a sheep if his breath was bad. The sheep said "Yes," and the lion bit off her head for a fool. A wolf, asked the same question, said "No." Him the lion killed for a liar. A fox in answer to the question said he had a cold in his head and could not smell.

She Made Him Happy.
"Shan't we go now, Emma? I feel cold here, and I've got a cough." "You sit still, Henry, and keep your mouth shut. I've got to finish this book on 'The Secret of Making One's Husband Happy.'" — Megendorfer Blatter.

Trouble For Pa.
"Where do they wind you up, Miss Skrecker?" "Wind me up?" "Yes, Pa said you sang mechanically." — Houston Post.

Tonsorial Sarcasm.
Barber—Very sorry, sir, but I'm afraid I've made a small cut on your chin. Subject—Ah, it must have been a sharp spot on the razor.—London Punch.

Wholesome Advice.
Just because it is so difficult for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven the poor man should not think he has an absolute cinch.—Little Rock Gazette.

Star Sight.
By all the rules of the game of nature we should not be able to see a star at all, for it appears from the earth as a geometrical point, a thing without dimensions, and cannot be measured even in the most powerful telescope. A star appears in a telescope just as it does to the naked eye. Now the question naturally comes up as to why we can perceive a star, a thing with no dimensions. We certainly cannot see so small a thing under the microscope. The whole answer is a peculiarity of the human eye and, in fact, of all optical instruments, called diffraction. A lens does not focus parallel rays of light to a geometrical point, even though they come from a point, and so a small disk is printed on the retina by a star, and the star is perceived. Remember, though, that only the star's effect is perceived with the eye. A planet of course is different, as it is comparatively close to us, and its actual disk may be seen and measured in the telescope, just as that of the moon can be seen with the naked eye.—Chicago Herald.

Born of an Odor.
Professor Alexander Graham Bell once gave an account, which is here condensed, of an invention founded on a smell.

First, a chemist detected in sulphuric acid waste an odor which on analysis was found to come from a hitherto unknown substance. This was called silenium.

Second, silenium crystallized was found to be a conductor of electricity of phenomenally high resistance.

Third, the new resistant, having been put to use in place of whole coils of wire to balance the Atlantic cable during the period of laying, was found to have at night twice its resisting power of the daytime.

Fourth, Professor Bell playing upon silenium's sensitiveness to light produced the photophone, by means of which one may talk over a beam of light.

The Cynics.
Cynics was the name applied to a school of philosophers founded by Antisthenes, a pupil of Socrates. The main tenet of the extreme cynics was that civilization is a curse, and true happiness can be obtained only by gratifying the most primary physical appetites which man has in common with brutes. The general attitude of the cynics as distinguished from that of the stoics, who regarded everything in the external world with indifference, was one of contempt. They were not an important philosophical school numerically, but attracted attention largely by their eccentricities and insolence. On account of their contempt for refinement their name came subsequently to be applied to any one who takes a mean view of human life.

Papal Names.
Every one knows that as soon as a cardinal becomes a pope he is no longer known by his own name, but takes a new one. This custom originated out of reverence for St. Peter.

This custom, now a law of the church, had its origin in 854, when Peter di Poren became pope of Rome. He held that it would be presumptuous to style himself Peter II, so he adopted the name of Sergius II. Before that time many popes had changed their names, but it was not obligatory for them to do so. Sergius II. not only established a precedent in this direction, but he set an example which all pontiffs have followed in that none of them has ever retained or assumed the name of Peter.

J. T. GILBERT LEE LYBARGER
Who lectures Thursday evening Thursday afternoon very much appreciated. His topic was "Dead Lions." Dr. McConnell is original, forceful and attractive and is one of the most unique lecturers on the platform.

The concert of the Maurer Sisters in the evening was one of the most enjoyable features on this year's program. The feature of their program was cornet solos with piano accompaniment, cello solos, whistling solos, and a violin and a flute duet.

This afternoon the lecture by Dean W. T. Sumners on "Efficient Citizenship" will be of an uplifting character and one of the best scheduled for this year's Chautauqua.

Thursday's program offers two very interesting and instructive lectures. Thursday afternoon Lee Lybarger will lecture on "Land, Labor and Wealth," and in the evening Prof. J. P. Gilbert will lecture on "Farm and Household Pests."

Society

One of the prettier and more delightful of the social functions of the younger set of Newark was given Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Helen Fuller entertained the members of the L. W. Club at her home, 68 West Church street.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the members of the club assembled. They enjoyably spent the afternoon until 8 o'clock, when refreshments were served.

The guests of the club were Misses Irene and Mildred Robinson of Brazil Ind., Sue Slater of Mannington, W. Va., and Lillian Lindorf of Indiana. Purity of the Law.
At Bodmin assizes once a barrister while pleading was interrupted by the judge:
"Mr. Carter, you are wasting the time of the court."
"Time of the court?" retorted the truculent veteran, glaring fiercely at the bench. "Your lordship means—your lordship's dinner!"
The judge threw up his hands in despair, and Carter continued his harangue in peace.

The same redoubtable advocate was on another occasion defending a man charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

"False pretenses!" said he, with fine scorn. "Why, we all make them every day, barristers and solicitors and judges—the whole lot of us! Talk of the purity of the judicial ermine—here he pointed derisively to the learned judge, who sat cowering on the bench—'why, it's only rabbit skin!'"

Shouts of laughter greeted this irreverent statement, which investigation would probably show to be literally true.—London Tit-Bits.

The Mares of Mohammed.

In bygone days there was no more enthusiastic breeder of horses than the Prophet Mohammed. In the course of time he became the owner of a vast number of mares, and the point was how to arrive at a selection of the very best.

At last, says Country Life, he hit upon the following scheme: For three days and nights the mares were kept without water; then they were loosed and, as might have been expected, tore madly off to their usual watering place. Just as they were on the very brink of the water the trumpet blew the war signal or assembly.

Maddened with the thirst, the mares forgot their training, all save five, who, forgetting their own urgent need, galloped back at once to seek their masters. These five mares were set apart by Mohammed as representing the pick of his stud, and from them, we are told, descended the best and noblest breed of horses.

The Midnight Sun.

At certain seasons of the year, owing to the position of the earth, there is a territory in the arctic circle where the sun is above the horizon for weeks or months continuously, shining at night as well as during the day. Thus at North Cape, Norway, the sun is above the horizon continuously from May 12 to July 29 and at Bodo, not far from the arctic circle, from June 3 to July 7. Even in the extreme south of Norway there is no darkness from the end of April to the middle of August.

In the winter, on the other hand, the sun is not visible at the North Cape from Nov. 18 to Jan. 23 and at Bodo from Nov. 15 to Dec. 27. There is only a twilight at midday. In the extreme south of Norway the sun is above the horizon for six and one-half hours at midwinter.—Philadelphia Press.

Science and Statistics.
Science was horrified when Statistics discovered that babies to the economic value of $200,000,000 perish each year.

"This must cease!" exclaimed Science excitedly.

"It's up to you," rejoined Statistics without emotion.

But no sooner had Science fallen on and by various devices caused the babies to stop perishing than Statistics discovered that half of these were girls and $200,000,000 wouldn't begin to dress them.

"The laugh is on you," quoth Statistics grimly.—Life.

The Era of Latin.
During about 700 years the Latin language was the language of court, camp and polite society from the river Tweed, in Scotland, to the Euphrates, in Asia, and from the Crimea, in the Black Sea, to the Pillars of Hercules, at the western extremity of the Mediterranean sea.

The Tibetan highlands of Asia have an area of 770,000 square miles and range from 13,000 to 15,000 feet above the sea.

Many a woman's idea of retaliation is paying a call.

Channel Islands' Customs.
The Channel Islands—where there is still in every day use a patrol almost identical with the Norman French spoken by William the Conqueror—are the home of other quaint antiquarian relics. A local politician whose election as jurat had been annulled by the royal court of the island on the ground of his having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment some years ago knelt bareheaded at the entrance to the courthouse and exclaimed, "Haro, Haro, Haro, a l'ide, mon prince, on me fait tort." The effect of this appeal, technically called the "clameur de Haro," is to stay proceedings until the petitioner's case has been heard.

In modern times the cry has most frequently been raised to interrupt building operations on land to which the title is disputed—much to the annoyance of unsuspecting strangers who have settled in the islands without being aware of this curious tradition. Popular etymology explains "Haro" as an abbreviation of "Ha, Rollo!" thus making the cry a direct appeal to the first Duke of Normandy.

The Most Accurate Machine.
The world's most precise piece of machinery is doubtless the Rowland dividing engine, owned and operated by Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore. This machine, the invention of Professor Henry A. Rowland, long the head of the physics department in that institution, was devised by him to rule diffraction gratings on glass or metal for use in the most delicate kind of spectroscopic work in the place of the glass prisms that are commonly used to form the spectrum by splitting up white light into its component colors. These gratings consist of five parallel lines so close together that they can be separated only by a microscope of the highest power. Accuracy is measured nowadays by the limit of error. The Rowland gratings are not perfect because perfection is impossible, but their limit of error is one-millionth of an inch, which makes the engine that is able to draw them the record holder for accuracy.—Literary Digest.

Astrological Constellations.

The sun does not belong to any constellation. There are no constellations, merely imaginary figures of men, beasts, serpents, etc., among the stars, all made by ancient astrologers ages before even one law of nature had been discovered. Thus go out to space a hundred trillion miles or so, turn around, look back at our sun, and it would appear as a very small star in some one of these imagined figures, let us say Orion. Now move during a few hundred millions years at a mile per minute; then our little star, the sun, would appear as a point in some other figure, depending entirely in what part of the celestial vault you might then happen to be located. Astronomers catalogue positions of stars by right ascensions and declinations, east of the prime meridian and north or south of the celestial equator, and have no manner of use for astrological constellations.—New York American.

Why Flowers Flash.

The strange phenomenon exhibited by some red flowers of seeming to flash in the twilight, but only when the flower comes sideways into the range of vision, is explained by Professor F. A. W. Thomas. He says twilight makes red seem brighter and green duller than in full daylight. As the image of the red flower moves from the peripheral part of the retina, where the rods are red blind, to the fovea the red is perceived more vividly than before, and this image coincides with the purplish after image of the surroundings, giving the impression of a flash.

Dogs and Moslems.

Dogs in Mohammedan countries have even more freedom than with us, not because Mohammedans love them more, but because it is impious to kill or molest an animal, however mean, that Allah lets live. But there is no bitterer insult than to call a Moslem a dog. "The Swiss Family Robinson" is not admitted at the Turkish custom house because it tells about a dog named Turk.

Probable Winners In Licking County at Tuesday's Primaries

The interest in the first general primary election ever held in Licking county seemed to gather force and become dominant after the polls were closed, instead of before. The vote in Newark was light and the same was true in the country precincts, which showed conclusively that the electors either took little interest in the new manner of selecting partisan candidates or they thought the contests for the important offices were too one-sided to be interesting.

Of course the rainy weather kept many away from the polls, especially in the country districts, where men had to go considerable distances to vote.

But after the time for voting had passed it seemed that curiosity as to the results got the upper hand, which was whetted by the early returns.

By 7 o'clock there was a crowd in front of the Advocate office, which was being constantly augmented, until between 9 and 10 o'clock it extended nearly to the car tracks. There seemed to be as much interest manifest as if a presidential election was at issue.

The returns began to come in over the Advocate's Associated Press leased wire from the state at large almost as soon as those from Newark city and Licking county. These were posted in the window and eagerly read by the crowd, which stayed until nearly midnight.

At that time it was generally known how the principal contests in the county had resulted.

The race for sheriff seemed to really be the one to which most interest attached, as it was soon seen that the congressional nomination would be a walkover for W. A. Ashbrook on the Democratic ticket, and W. A. Irvine had no opposition on the Republican. The Bull Moose vote for all candidates was negligible.

Brownfield Patton and Harrison, Democrats, for sheriff, ran closely and up until an early hour this morning the result was in doubt. The city count was complete at that time, but the country vote was the deciding factor. Before leaving the Advocate office for home, Joseph Brownfield conceded Patton's nomination.

On the Republican ticket Redman and Swank were the contestants, with Beadle and Hoover getting a fair vote, but at the time of going to press it appears as if Swank would be nominated by a good plurality.

William E. Miller is defeated by William H. Miles for treasurer of the county on the Democratic ticket, while Clarence C. Fravel had no Republican opposition.

Hon. Lewis B. Houck of Mt. Vernon will probably win in the fifteen counties comprising the Fifth judicial circuit for appellate judge, over Edward Kibler of Newark, Robert Adair and Judge E. M. Wickham. Judge Wickham over the telephone from Delaware, told the Advocate that Houck would be nominated.
